Policy: L.I.F.E. AWARD: Leadership in Idaho by Friends of Education

It shall be the policy of the Idaho Association of School Administrators to provide recognition to those school patrons who volunteer their time, expertise, and energy to improve the education of students in a particular school building or school district.

The Award shall be given to a patron of a local school district or a group of patrons who have volunteered significant time, expertise, or energy to promote the education of students in the building or district.

Nominations for the award shall be provided on a form supplied by the Association. Nominations may be made by any member of the IASA.

Submitted nominations will be reviewed by the IASA Board of Directors. If a nominee merits recognition, a recipient will be selected.

The award recipient shall be recognized at the Association's next annual meeting and presented with an appropriate commemorative item reflective of the prestige of the award.
